

PHỞ SÀI GÒN

ABOUT PHO SAIGON

From 1986 to 1998, P.B. Tran worked for a Vietnamese restaurant chain with locations throughout the United States. He helped with the company's expansion and gradually worked his way up from general manager to international consultant with the company's expansion to Southeast Asia. He left the company in 1998 to pursue his own restaurant venture.

P.B. Tran wanted to open a restaurant that he could run with his wife, and that would allow him to spend more time with his family. As a result, in 1998, Pho Saigon Vietnamese Noodle House opened in Midtown Houston.

What started out as a "mom and pop" shop grew to five (5) locations within the first five years. Now, after over 20 years in the restaurant industry and nine (9) locations between Houston and Austin, Pho Saigon is now the largest and one of the most successful Pho concepts in Texas.

Pho Saigon has an old-fashioned way of doing business that is smart and honest, and we are dedicated to our employees and our customers.

MENU

Pho starts with an aromatic beef or chicken broth, made by simmering high quality beef, beef bones and spices for beef soup, and free roaming chickens and spices are used for the chicken soup. Pho is a thin, flat rice noodle, but you can choose from egg noodles, clear noodles, or even thick round rice noodles. We offer eye round steak, well done lean meat, well done flank, soft tendon, fatty brisket, white omasum beef tripe, skirt flank, and beef meat balls. For chicken, we offer white and dark meat chicken, or a combination of both.

1. Eye round steak - Tái
2. Well done flank - Nạm
3. Fatty brisket - Gầu
4. Soft tendon - Gân
5. White omasum beef tripe - Sách
6. Well done lean meat - Chín
